AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $4,000, which shall bear interest as provided by law.

The fine shall be paid in full immediately.

The defendant shall comply with Second Amended General Order 20-04.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, RONALD THAI, is hereby committed on Count 2 of the Indictment to a sentence of TIME SERVED.

The defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of THREE (3) YEARS under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of federal, state, or local law or ordinance.

3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. During the period of supervised release, the defendant shall participate for a period of SIX MONTHS in a home detention program which may include electronic monitoring, GPS, Alcohol Monitoring Unit, or automated identification systems and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall pay the costs of home confinement monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12 for each day of participation. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of entry of judgment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
7. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
8. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or alcohol dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. The defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
9. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
10. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
11. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
12. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to him to be a member of the Crips and others known to him to be participants in the Crips' criminal activities, with the exception of his family members. He may not wear, display, use or possess any gang insignia, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the Crips, and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the Crips.

USA vs. Ronald ThaiDocket No.: CR 22-00483-DMG

13. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to him to be a location where members of the Crips, other than his family members, meet and/or assemble.
14. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency and to provide the defendant with needed correctional treatment in the most effective manner. Further disclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Government moves to dismiss Count 1 of the Indictment. The Court grants the motion.

The Court orders the defendant's bond exonerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
